One of the best things about serving as the FCA Southwest Region President is working with a great Board of Directors. The current board consists of people from different backgrounds and professions that share an interest in Ferraris and participating in the club. They all actively contribute at meetings and online - no shy people here!

There are also a group of members, including several past Presidents, that attend each meeting. These individuals participate every bit as much as the regular board members and contribute their skills and experience to the success of the club.

The board meetings take place on the second Saturday of each month at 9:00 AM and are open to all members. If you are interested in seeing how the board operates or perhaps becoming an FCA-SW Director yourself, you should plan to attend the meetings. The board meetings formerly took place at the Petersen Museum; however, due to renovation of the museum the meetings are moving to new locations. We may vary the locations of the board meetings to more than one location around southern California, giving members in different parts of the region an opportunity to attend and participate.

In 2015 the club will have some new Directors. If past experience is any indication, they will continue to be a great group to work with.

MISSILES, EXOTIC CARS & FRIENDS EXOTIC CAR SHOW AT VANDENBERG

Article By
Jim Bindman

Bill Makepeace, Tom Brockmiller, Tex Otto

Why is the Exotic Car Show at Vandenberg unique? Not because the show was on a beautiful golf course and the weather was perfect. Not because there were almost 100 exotic cars and 4,000 happy spectators. Here are a few reasons why Vandenberg is so special:

On the base, the day before the show, our lucky group took a "spirited" drive along the beautiful twisty roads towards the Boathouse, a 100 year old Coast Guard Station. A few of the base patrol guards that escorted us told our members they never saw a Ferrari up close. Several generous FCA members put them in the seat...the DRIVERS seat! BTW, Vandenberg encompasses almost 50 miles of pristine California coastline. Next year we will get more Airmen in our cars.

The night before the car show, 90 car owners and partners had a wonderful dinner in the Officers Club where 3 or 4 Airmen sat at every table. All of us sponsored an Airman for dinner. Jennifer Martinez and Kara Montano from the base spent a year getting cool giveaways and we had a drawing at dinner where almost every Airman won a great prize, including some donated by generous FCA members. Lt. Colonel Gregory Marty, who was instrumental in the beginning getting the Car Show (and especially the base tour) approved has been transferred, but he flew back on his own dime to be with his FCA friends.

Many car owners allowed kids (and some adults) to sit in the cars at the show. Michael Bindman counted about 200 very happy kids that posed in his orange Lotus! The size definitely suited them. Saturday night, after the car show our group "invaded" Casmalia, California, population 138, with 35 exotic cars and 70 people, where we had a super cool dinner at the Original Hitching Post Restaurant. The locals thought they were invaded by Beverly Hills.

Steven Traisman from the Pacific Region came with his wife Choi and she brought loads of Hula Hoops that were enjoyed by kids and adults, especially adults that spent time in the wine tasting tent. Generous members from the Pacific Region, Las Vegas, Arizona, San Diego and Hawaii came to support the troops.

The car show was naturally on a splendid sunny day, the perfect weather guaranteed by the US Air Force. Day after the car show it was gloomy by the way. Those of us that have been fortunate to experience The Vandenberg have clearly realized this event is about the people, but our love of Ferraris made this happen.

Many car owners returned for the 3rd year to show their support; people with maybe nothing in common besides our love of cool cars and country. We've become friends and most promised to be back next year. The complete weekend experience is much larger than the sum of its parts. Those of you who are so supportive, thank you... you know who I am referring to!

Finally, thanks again to John Kerley and Raphaele Durand from The AutoGallery for hosting our drive to the base on Friday morning for the 3rd straight year. The latte bar is killer!

CAMPBELL'S SOUP TO NUTS TOUR

Article and Photos By
Doug Campbell

We had a good turnout for the third annual Soup to Nuts Tour! Thirty four people, nineteen Ferraris, one Cobra, one Porsche, and a Triumph Bonneville took on a sunny morning, launching from Starbucks, in Anaheim Hills.

After the appropriate coffee fix, we held a Ferrari trivia contest. Correct responses were awarded with extravagant prizes: cans of soup or bags of nuts! The most knowledgeable cognoscenti included: Paul Zalle, Bob Estrada, Malcolm Sneer, and Bill Makepeace.

Yours truly lead the the tour, with the invitation to pass me if I was setting a boring pace (several did for awhile!).

The tour began in Anaheim Hills, heading East towards Chino at "medium" speeds, then westbound through Carbon, Brea, and Turnbull Canyons, as well as East and West Roads in La Habra Heights. Correct, no one got a ticket or had a mishap! The journey was shared with motorcyclists, golfers, and horseback riders as we drove through the countryside, up hills to MARVELOUS vistas and our usual "break point".

Two hours and seventy miles from the start, we ended up in Whittier, at a private room in the Roadhouse Restaurant where we were provided excellent food and service!

It was a fun day with, curvaceous cars, pedigreed participants, princely prizes, stupendous scenery, fabulous food, and fired up friends.... Hope to see even more of you "exercising" your prancing horses soon!

FERRARI CELEBRATES SIXTY IN THE USA

Article By
Tex Otto

Photos By

Larry O'Rourke, Wally Clark,
Tom Brockmiller, Tex Otto

Usually when someone turns the big six-zero, they want to just let the moment pass by as quietly as possible. But when it's in celebration of six decades of passionate competition, Ferrari went full out in Beverly Hills to recognize, honor and cherish their racing heritage.

Sixty famed Ferraris were presented on Rodeo Drive in a historic display that may never again be assembled to this magnitude. Iconic and notable Ferraris known from film and television were presented (Magnum PI 308 GTS, Miami Vice Testarossa and Ferris Bueller's Day Off California Spider among them), with a focus on many of the significant racing Ferraris including Le Mans and Daytona winners.

In addition to the sixty Cavallinos featured on Rodeo, three processions of Ferraris lead by company dignitaries including Piero Ferrari, caravanned through the counting arch at Wilshire Blvd. I wonder if tourists thought this was a typical day in Beverly Hills where the streets and parking lots were filled with Ferraris?

A featured presentation on the main stage was the first global public unveiling of the limited-edition F60 America which pays homage to the largest market of Ferraris.

Ferrari SpA, Ferrari North America, our FCA Southwest Region plus renown Ferrari collectors Bruce Meyer and David Sydorick are to all be commended for their mind numbing coordination and logistics of accomodating a massive private party in the streets of Beverly Hills for thousands of people, free of charge. It was truly a great celebration which brought Ferrari enthusiasts together to share our passion.

WEST COAST DRIVING EVENT AT WILLOW SPRINGS

Article and Photos By
Marshall Buck, Ph.D.

Track photos © Caliphotography

As expected, the weather at Willow Springs International Raceway was perfect, and there was a nice turnout of Ferraris, I counted eight. In addition, there were three McLaren MP4-12Cs, two Audi R8s, a Ford GT and the Galpin GTR1 Supercar. The event was filled out nicely with Porsches, Corvettes, Mustangs, AMG Mercedes, Vipers, Spec Miatas and even a Lola T-70.

The event is organized by Jim and Cherie Saxton of West Coast Racing, and has been a favorite partner for the FCA for many years now. Galpin Motorsports has recently become a sponsor, and hosted a Saturday trackside dinner with delicious tri-tip and sides, including adult beverages.

After a plenary driver's meeting where the track and event rules were explained, the six driving instructors quickly took the novice drivers on van rides, for a classroom chalk talk, and individual tutoring on the finer points of the Art of High Performance Driving - safely.

Lisa Clark treated her California to new tires for the occasion, and had a great time smoothly curving around the nine turn Big Willow course. I encouraged Lisa to bring her teenage daughter out sometime for driver training.

Karlton Spindle drove his 599 Fiorano in a spirited manner, and brought a highly enhanced Crossfire for a couple of Airmen he sponsored to drive in the event.

Vance Maddox has become a regular in his beautiful red 458 Italia, and he drives a very skilled and disciplined line. Steve Schwartz brought his McLaren 12MP4-12C and after I rode shotgun teaching him the smooth line, he was generous in inviting me to herd this finely tuned machine around for a few laps. I still haven't quite gotten used to seeing the rear spoiler popping up as an air-brake, but is sure is effective!

Ben Reiling's Lola T-70 Can Am roadster was freshly restored and a treat to see, but as this was its first time to Willow, it needed some added shakedown before it can trumpet it's thunder.

It was great to see so many repeats and first timers out with their Prancing Horses.

Just a reminder - since the event is a HPDE, some regular street insurance will protect your car in the unlikely event of an accident. AAA is one.

The next Willow event is scheduled for March 7-8, 2015. Do something nice for yourself and your steed!
